Purely Personal!

Word has been received from the C. A. Balliet who have been stationed in Tehran, Iran, for the past four years, that the children, Joan and Andy, will be arriving home by airplane today. They will be with their sister, Mrs. Jay Coumas, who has lived in the home place since her parents departure. Mrs. Balliet will visit for some time with friends in Athens, Greece, and Paris, France, before coming home and Mr. Balliet is being requested to stay for at least six more months. He is in the communications department of the Central Intelligence Agency and is a specialist in radio, radar, and related fields.
